FAP appoints Head of Valuation

Berlin, 22 January, 2021 – FAP Group, a leading independent consultancy in the procurement and structuring of capital for real estate investments and development projects, has strengthened its Valuation team. Tobias Jessen MRICS joined the Berlin-based company as Head of Valuation & Property Due Diligence on 1 January, 2021, and will be responsible for valuation, analysis and due diligence activities on all FAP projects going forward. The new role forms part of the expansion of FAP.

Jessen has around 10 years' experience in property valuation. His previous role was Director of Colliers International Valuation, where he headed up a valuation team of five colleagues. Prior to that, he was a Project Manager at Jones Lang LaSalle (JLL) in Berlin, responsible for portfolio valuations across all offices.

Curth-C. Flatow, Managing Partner of FAP Group says: "In Tobias Jessen, we have acquired a proven valuation expert with an excellent track record. We look forward to working with him."

Jessen holds a degree in Real Estate from HTW Berlin University of Applied Sciences. The 33-year-old is a member of the RICS and a qualified banker.
